

Acknowledgement

The Officers and Committee of the Comparative Education Society in Europe wish to thank the National Board of Education, the School of Education, and the City Board of Education in Stockholm for the gracious hospitality and generous financial support extended to the Society before and during the conference held in Stockholm in June 1971.

The Society's thanks are particularly due to the Swedish organising committee, Dr. E. Blix, Professor T. Husén, Mr. H. Öberg and Dr. S. Marklund, who arranged accommodation, conference facilities, secretarial help, and receptions for participants at the School of Education, the Town Hall and at the Wenner-Gren Center at the invitation of the National Board of Education. The Swedish authorities have met the costs of publishing these proceedings, for which help the Society is most grateful.

We should also like to thank the many persons in the National Board and at the School of Education who worked so hard to ensure the success of the Conference. In particular may we mention Mrs. S.-A. Kullman and Mrs. K. Ragvaldson and their colleagues who did so much to meet our many demands.
